The Old Reliable Jewelry Store at the New Location

We have the goods, the largest variety ever shown in Barre. Our leaders are articles from $2 to $10.

F. E. Burr,

Telephone 66-3.

114 No. Main St.

WHAT SHALL I GIVE?

and a second process of the company of the company

This is the live question of the day. What better present than a pair of

Shoes or Slippers

They are useful, sensible and satisfactory. Our store is loaded with good things in the footwear line, such as

> Dress Shoes Evening Slippers Warm Shoes Warm Slippers Gaiters, Leggings and Overshoes

A reminder—Don't forget that pair of Rubber Boots for the little tot.

GEO. N. TILDEN

WOOD BLOCK

BARRE, VT.

of the giver and delight the receiver. From Dec. 19 to Dec. 25, we will sell for cash at our store, 24 Elm street, for cost to us, the following four lines from our stock:-Rogers' Anchor Brand Table Silver

Bromley & Sons Celebrated Smyrna Rugs, in the 72 and 60-inch sizes

The Monarch Carpet Sweeper And a nice line of Framed Pictures. See our display window-30 seconds' walk from Main street. The remainder of our line at our usual moderate prices and liberal terms.

J. F. SADLIER, 24 Elm Street

Auction!

We have had a Piano Player left here with instructions to sell not later than Christmas. We have not found a customer; therefore we will sell it at public auction on the date mentioned below. We will also close out our complete line of Skates, about 40 pairs; 500 wax graphophone records, both Columbia and Edison make; 5 graphophones, some slightly out of repair, all second-hand machines; also 25 framed pictures, ranging in price from $1.50 to $6.00. A few ladies' and gents' pocketbooks, one ladies' mink throw-genuine Vermont mink. We will close out the above lines and discontinue them. We have about 6 second-hand guns that will go in this

Thursday, Dec. 22, at 7 P.M.

AT OUR STORE, 14 ELM STREET, BARRE, WT.

Your chance to buy a Christmas present for any member of the family at your own price. This "Angelus" Piano Player that is to be sold cost about $300.00. We have had an expert look it over and put it in A-No. 1 condition.

Don't miss this sale-Thursday at 7 p. m.

C. F. SMITH, Auctioneer.

EARL S. SHEPARD & CO.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Held Yesterday Afternoon. The funeral services of Mrs. George aside for an endowment fund.

January 12, 1911, with Mrs. Charles Ben-The program is the following:

ORANGE.

Funeral of Mrs. Delia Curtis Was Held Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Delia Curtis, widow of the late Mason B. Curtis, who died at her home in Orange last Thursday of Mrs. F. A. Wales has been visiting pneumonia, was held from the late home friends in Wolcott the past week. Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. W. Barnett, pastor of the Congregational church in Barre, officiated. There was a large gathering of friends and rela-The many beautiful floral tributes espoke the love and esteem of her n the cemetery at Orange Center. Mrs. Curtis' maiden name was Delia Pike, and she was born in Orange 68 years ago. She is survived by two daughters and one son, Mrs. J. B. Emerson, Mrs. C. W. Emerson and Fred Curtis, all

The following is a list of the flowers: arnations, Bessie Cooney and Lena ncker; carnations, roses and ferus, Beard family: pillow, smilax, carnaton, geraniums and begonias; Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bohonon, carnations and

There will be a tree and Christmas exercises at the church Friday evening, December 23, at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone cordially invited. Presents for the tree may be left at the store.

EAST BARRE.

Fred Lermond is on the sick list again. V. E. Coleman is at his home for the hristmas vacation.

ight from an extended visit in New

The Rebekahs will hold a whist party Wednesday evening, December 21. Everybody is invited. Members of the order are requested to bring sandwiches. There will be a skiddo dance in the opera house hall, East Barre, Friday evening, December 23. Dancing from 8 to 3. Oyster supper served by ladies of the N. E. O. P. in the Odd Fellows' hall. First-class music. Admission 73 Come and have the time of your life and then some.

GRANITEVILLE.

There will be a skidde dance in the pera house hall, East Barre, Friday evening, December 23. Dancing from 8 to 3. Oyster supper served by ladies of the N. E. O. P. in the Odd Fellows' hall. First-class music. Admission 73 Johnsbury Tuesday. Mrs. J. T. Darling cents, ladies free. Come and have the and Mrs. I. O. Ricker spent the same time of your life.

For Rent-Four nice tenements in N. H. Shepard boardinghouse. Will be ready January 1, 1911. Inquire of Donald Smith or A. A. Smith, or phone 466-2.

WEBSTERVILLE.

pera house hall, East Barre, Friday evening, December 23. Dancing from 8 He was accompanied by his niece, Miss hall. First-class music. Admission 73 at the above named place. cents, ladies free. Come and have the time of your life,

EAST MONTPELIER.

The Christmas tree exercises on Frilay evening will be held at the hall instead of at the church, as first planned, and the public is cordially invited to attend. There will be an entertainment by the children and others, and there will be two Christmas trees, Feel languid, weak, run down? Head ache? Stomach "off"? Just a plain case of lazy liver. Burdock Blood Bitters tones liver and atomach, promotes digestion, purifies the blood.

Soothes itching skin. Heals cuts or ourns without a sear. Cures piles, eczema, salt rheum, any itching. Doan's Mo., needed help and couldn't find it. Ointment. Your druggist sells it.

"I suffered habitually from constipa-Doan's Regulets relieved strengthened the bowels, so that they have been regular ever since."—A. E. Davis, grocer, Sulphur Springs, Tex.

CABOT.

Funeral Services of Mrs. George Beckett Death of Oldest Citizen in Town, Mrs. Miss Louise M. Beer of Waltham, Mass., Central Vermont Station Endangered by Strong, spoke of the steadfast Christian years of age she went to Thetford to live, the Lucius Cummings fund for worthy had worked into the partition. Concharacter of the deecased, she having Her maiden name was Mary F. Tenney, enterprises and it is hoped societies or siderable damage was done by fire, character of the deecased, she having Her maiden name was Mary F. Tenney, enterprises and it is hoped societies or been a member of the local church for to Allen E. Waterman and to them was supporter. Mrs. Beckett was a daughter of Calvin Flint, a well-known citizen of Williamstown in a former generation seals will be applied to the district nurse fund.

Waterman died, leaving his companion with the little one. In 1861 she took her the proceeds from the sale of the federation seals will be applied to the district nurse fund.

Waterman died, leaving his companion with the little one. In 1861 she took her the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor, and the offices of Judge on the first floor and the offices of Judge of the first floor and the offices of Judge on the first floor and the offices of Judge of the first floor and the offices of Judge of the first floor and the offices of Judge of the first floor and the f tion, and one of a family of eight chil- little daughter and came to live in the dren, of whom only one survives, Horace film, of Gibbon, Neb. Mrs. Beckett's mother was a sister of Rey. Samuel Delano, a trustee of Dartmouth college. Mr. and Mrs. Beckett were married in 1857. Their son, Charles H. Beckett, is that time she has lived with her daughtrised vertex. prominent in business and political life ter, who has tenderly and faithfully in New York. The burial of the de-ceased was in the family lot in the vil-ceased was in the family lot in the village cemetery. The bearers were Charles
M. Seaver, Henry Poole, N. B. Robin son and Harley T. Martin.

of age, she joined the church and has since lived an exemplary Christian life and for over 40 years has been a wo thy member of the Congregational church in The special library committee is send this place and a constant attendant the widow of Charles Hollis, who forng out notices to the shareholders of when health permitted. She was per-Williamstown social library, to the feetly free from self-esteem, posses effect that at the regular meeting on of a pleasant, cheerful disposition, al-January 10 action will be taken to see ways thoughtful for others and especial-if the society will vote to donate its ly for the one whose untiring devotion books to the town of Williamstown, said had been so kindly bestowed upon her ift to be conditioned on the town voting aged mother. Although having passed accept the gift and undertaking to her fourscore and ten years, her mind care for and maintain the same in a free public library, and provided that the town accepts the offer and gift of Mrs. Laura L. Ainsworth, of $5,000, of which a sum not to exceed $3,000 is to provide of which she had treasured up in her a position has been had by the trustee, a library building, the balance being set mind, and with a smile she looked for George H. Dale, account for authority side for an endowment fund. ward to the happy meeting of loved ones to quit-claim an interest in a small piece. The Christmas meeting of the Home gone before. Shortly after repeating a of land in Waterbury the object being Study club is indefinitely postponed. portion of the 23d Psalm, she quietly to clear a title to the property, in which the next regular meeting will be on passed away.

Funeral services were held at her small interest, home, Rev. D. L. Hilliard speaking com-"Times of George Washington," Annie McKee Gale; "A Trip to Boston in 1790," Abbie P. Watson; "Contemporary History," Florence B. Cascy.

"Times of George Washington," Annie forting words from one of her favorite scripture texts, found in II Cor. 5:1. Ninety-four white carnations were placed upon her casket by near friends, also upon her casket by near friends, also several other floral tributes, carrying sympathy to the bereaved daughter. Burial was in the village cemetery.

> Mrs. S. C. Voodry was in Montpelier l'uesday on business.

rouble and other complications.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Foster were bustness visitors in Wolcott Monday and

The reception given to the parents of the pupils of the high school, directors, superintendent and some invited guests tions and roses, family; carnations and cember 26, with appropriate exercises, begonias, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Noyes; A chicken-pie supper will be served in the tenth of the ten A chicken-pie supper will be served in Rev. S. F. Blomfield officiating, > Ernest Witham is manager of the first of the first team. Tuesday evening, December 13, a farce was played with five minutes in court. Marshfield at Cabot, resulting in a vic-tory for Cabot, score 80 to 11.

GROTON.

Mrs. Stephen Thurston and daughter, Fred Hyland returned home Friday Edith, went to Montpelier Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. P. A. Smith went to Morrisville Monday to pass the week. Mrs. E. F. Clark, who has been ill

A. G. Welch went to Wells River Monday to visit leie son, Aaron, who is reported ill with typhoid fever.

interest of the Anti-Saloon league, Miss Reta Welen of Gordard seminary,

Mrs. E. G. Welen. Mrs. Emma J. Clark went to St. day at Wells River and Woodsville,

Ralph Smith left Faturday for Bos ten, where he expected to leave yesterday for Ormond Beach, Florida, where of the hotels for the winter. B. Frank Ricker, who has been in this uary 3. Three cases from Orleans coun-There will be a skiddo dance in the vicinity for the past ten days, left Saturday for his home at Hartford, Conn. to 3. Oyster supper served by ladies of the N. E. O. P. in the Odd Fellows' commercial course at a business college ing Henry Emerson vs. Corry, Deavitt

EAST ORANGE.

brange recently.

Delbert Hutchinson came home from cases and Rutland county two cases. Bradford to stay over Sunday with his parents. A good many from this vicinity at-

Mr. and Mrs. Aldee Prescott were at tended the drams, "The Old New Hamp-shire Home," at West Topsham Thursday evening

Charles Simpson last Wednesday afternoon with a large attendance, and all had a very pleasant time.

Wants to Help Someone.

That's why he wants to help someone "He stood there, looking around from now. Suffering so long himself, he feels face to face, and when his eyes looked for all distress from backache, nervous into mine I could see there a lot of ness, loss of appetite, lassitude and kid-Bitters work wonders for such troubles. at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

MONTPELIER.

Miss Louise M. Beer of Waltham, Mrs. Mary F. Stone died at the home Beckett were conducted in a simple and of her daughter, Mrs. George Dow, De- Mass., has been engaged by the Woman's dujet manner at the Beckett home Tuesday afternoon. A large number of friends and neighbors were present, and the sense of a common personal loss was manifest. The pastor, Rev. Mr.

H., Dec. 25, 1816. When about eight

The Woman's club has received $10 from the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from
the January large of the Woman's club has received $10 from the January large of the Woman's club has been caused by a stovepipe flue to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon. The blaze seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in Monday afternoon.

Woman seemed to act as district nurse in M

the rate of $15 per month from Decem-

The employes of the Standard Oil company in Montpelier were pleasantly surprised yesterday when they were noti-

Green Mount cemetery, Mrs. Hollis was The engagement is announced of Miss | Sarah A. Cardell, wife of John Carmouncement took place.

Mrs. C. D. Briggs and two children of yesterday afternoon, when a sleigh runner caught in the electric car tracks at the corner of Main and State streets. As they were thrown into the snow, no one was hurt, but there was a hustling of Christmas shoppers when the frightened horse ran upon the sidewalk in front of the McCcen store. The animal was stopped by Charles DeF. Bancroft, Mrs. J. T. Drew is ill with rheumatic who was dragged for some distance but was uninjuzed

Several Montpelier horsemen met last night at the board of trade rooms and organized the Capital City Driving club, to encourage interest in the sport of ice racing. The following officers were elected: President, J. M. Boutwell; vice Mrs. Millicent McIntyre has moved president, J. H. Kelliher; secretary, F. her millinery store across the street into E. Gleason; treasurer, Lewis M. Drew. friends. The pall bearers were A. L. Noyes, S. P. Noyes, Frank Haynes and Warren Moorhouse. The interment was > Abijah Herrand, who lived on a farm was a very pleasant occasion. A few at the age of 93 years. He was well near Jones brook, died Monday evening recitations, singing, piano selections and phonograph helped to make up the prophonograph helped to make up the program. Refreshments of sandwiches, fruit sist r. Mrs. Mary Dewey of Seattle, and candy were served. About 80 were Wash.; two nephews, George W. Her-Christmas will be observed at the ConD. of Walla Walla, Wash,; and a niece, gregational church Monday evening, De- Mrs. Edwin Flanders of Washington. aber 26, with appropriate exercises. The funeral was held this afternoon with keeping intoxicating liquor for sale, carnations, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lord ried out at the M. E. church Monday appeared in city court yesterday morn-and Marion Lord; Mr. and Mrs. Hunting-evening, Dec. 20. ing and waived examination. He was bound over to county court in $200 hail. Cabot has two good basketball teams. Dean Edson becoming surety. As to team and Wilber Howland assistant ing the raid conducted by Deputy Sher-Any teams wishing to play with them iffs Slayton of this city and Morris of will please notify these managers. Last Barre, the authorities will conduct an week Friday evening these two teams investigation, as Mr. Megrath states the played, with a score of 32 to 14 in favor applied was in the store solely for drug alcohol was in the store solely for drug purposes. The case occupied less than

> The annual meeting of the A. O. H. was held last evening and officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, J. A. Ryle; vice presi dent, A. J. Lyons; recording secretary B. F. McGovern; financial secretary Thomas Crowley; treasurer, D. J. Hayes; sergeant-at-arms, John Shanley sentinel, William McGovern; standing Shean, D. D. Flannagan, John Connolly for the past week is somewhat improved. and J. A. Ewing; historian, John Shan-Mrs. Martha Colby and daughter, ley. A joint installation with the Ladies Flora, of Fairlee are visiting relatives of the A. O. H. will be held in January.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pillsbury and children are spending a few days with relatives in Montpeller.

This city and other places in Vermont are interested in recent news dispatches, which state that E. C. Development of the control of t pany of Fort Payne, Ala., has been arpost office aurested by the thorities on the charge of us-C. J. Fergus of Burlington spoke ing the mails to carry on a frauduat the Methodist church Sunday in the lent business. Drew and others interested were in this locality early in the year with many gilt-edged propositons Parre, is spending the Louday vacation for the gullible, bit few victims were at the home of her parents, Mr. and found. Since the men left, letters have been received here from time to time concerning the benefits that might have been derived and last September the post office department sent requests to several here for the letters sent by the Drew combination. By means of these and other evidence the arrest of Drew was warranted.

The trial calendar of supreme court has employment as porter in one for the January term, 1911, has been issued. Court will open Tuesday, Janty are scheduled for the first week, two from Caledonia, seven from Franklin county, one from Chittenden county, two & Frost Electric company, and three from Washington county as follows: P O. Wheaton et al vs. Harley F. M. Cut-ler; F. N. Whiteomb vs. Harry W. Whitcomb, and Annie M. Bean, ex'rx va. George and Morris Atkins. The second week, opening January 10, Bennington coutny has one case, Windham eight

Courage. How often does it come to a man to wonder what courage really is. Is a The Friendship club met with Mrs. brave man adways brave? Can the wicked be really brave? Can a coward be really good? Each new definition and description of courage is seized upon by all the public which has so far failed to solve this psychological problem. In the January Adventure H. D. Couzens. For thirty years J. F. Boyer of Fertile, describing a mutiny, puts the following words into a sailor's mouth: "He stood there, looking around from things I didn't have myself and wished ney disorders. He shows that Electric I did. There was cold courage, 'way down where you can't shake it, and edu "Five bottles," he writes, "wholly cured cation and understanding, and somehow, me, and now I am well and hearty." It's though I knew Billy Englehart, marked Cheapest accident insurance — Dr. also positively guaranteed for liver trou me down with the rest of the gang, I Thomas' Eelectic Oil. Steps the pain ble, dyspepsia, blood disorders, female was glad be was abourd. I felt that and heals the wound. All druggists complaints and malaria. Try them, 50c somehow he would handle things now, and that he would play the game right."

NORTHFIELD.

Fire-Caught from Stovepipe. The Central Vermont passenger station narrowly escaped destruction by fire Morris M. Goodwin of Montpelier has C. D. Edgerton and Dr. Daniel Johnson been granted an increase of pension at on the second floor, were somewhat smoked up. The fire department was very prompt and the blaze was quickly subdued.

Invitations have been received to the be increases in salary.

Mrs. Lucinda E. Hollis died vesterday in Cambridge, Mass., and the body will be brought here to-morrow for burial in Green Mount cornetery, Mrs. Hollis was selected to the marriage of Miss Katherine Healy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William P. Swett of Southern Pines, N. C., and Hugh James Betterly of Hartford, Conn. Mr. Betterly is a graduate of Norwich university in the class of 06, in which Miss Green Mount cornetery. Mrs. Hollis was Swett's brother, James Swett, also gradnated, and Miss Swett is well known here, where she visited her brother.

lorence Smith, daughter of Mr. and dell, of Warren, died Friday at the home Mrs. C. A. Smith, to Albert Spaulding of her son, F. L. Cardell, here. She was of Somerville, Mass. Miss Bessie Kemp born in Stowe, July 27, 1842, and lived for members at $10 per member per gave a dinner last evening, at which the there until her marriage to John Cardell, when she moved to Warren. About sev-Petore W. N. Theria. ? referee in en years ago she came to this town benkruptcy, J. E. Reducy of noxoury and had lived with her son most of the ganization will be formed. The comtime since. Two years ago she had a the Congregational church officiated at the funeral, which was held at the home Middlesex were thrown from their sleigh side F. L. Cardell, with whom she lived, Mrs. Cardell is survived by a daughter, Hattie M., of Warren.

State Board of Trade Favored.

the meeting held at Montpelier to estab- Clipper,

Colton's Sofa Sleigh

Very wide seat. Very low gear. High grade all through Wide shoes, Vermont shafts.

COLTON, Vehicles and Si State Street, Montpelier, Vt.

year. If the response to the appeal is sufficiently encouraging a permanent ormittee thinks that a membership of at least 1,500 should be secured within invalid, though being able to be about two years. This seems to be a moderate the house most of the time. Two estimate and it is to be hoped that it months ago her health began to fail may be realized. No merchant or bus-more noticeably. Rev. J. B. Sargent of iness man, farmer, hotel or boarding iness man, farmer, hotel or boarding house keeper should hesitate about joining an organization which has so adof F. L. Cardell Sunday. Mr. Cardell mirable a purpose in view. It would be survives his wife, but is very feeble and money well spent and would bring good was unable to attend the funeral. Be-side F. L. Cardell, with whom she lived, would be as to the manner in which the project was handled and the makeup of the committee is the best assurance that could be had that there will he no trouble on that score. We hope to hear early reports to the effect that aubscriptions are pouring in to the com-The committee recently appointed by mittee in ample numbers.—Burlington

Do not know what to take? Then why not find out? Your doctor knows. Leave it all to him. If he says, "Ayer's Cherry Pectoral," then take it. If he says something else, take that. Do as he says. J. O. Aper Co., Lowell, Mass.

Our Holiday stock of goods is complete and full in every line. You can find here suitable gifts for all members of the family, gifts that have both the ment of usefulness and appropriateness. Read this list:

Christmas Postals from 1c to Fountain Pens, $1 00 to 5 00 Christmas Stationery, 5c to $1.50 Gentlemen's Purses

Gentlemen's Bill Folds. Dennison Tags, Seals, Cords, 5c

Post Card Albums, 10c to $1.50 Catholic Prayer Books 20c to Diaries ...... 10c to $1 00

Alger and Henty Books .... 25c Wellesley Series for Girls ... 25 Popular Copyrights ..... 50c Ink Stands ..... 10c to $1 50 Best Latest Fiction ..... $1.25

Barre Book Store

EGGS

We have the best of facilities for handling Eggs and can give you the best values at very reasonable prices; all closely candled goods.

Wholesale and Retail

N. E. Telephone Number 233-3

L. B. DODGE No. 300 North Main Street . Barre, Vt.

Now is the Time

To Subscribe for your Telephone

Our New Directory goes to press the last of December

Vt. Telephone & Telegraph Co.